'I am so happy to be a champion. I have the heart for it - I wanted this so bad...'

World class: Desiree Henry crosses the line

Teenage sprinter Desiree Henry beats hot favourite to win 200m gold at the Youth World Championships

By Dominique Stafford

A TEENAGE sprinter is delighted at her success after winning gold in the World Youth Athletics Championships.

Desiree Henry, 15, a member of Enfield And Haringey Athletic Club, stunned favourite Shericka Jackson of Jamaica to beat the world's best 200-metre athletes in Lille in France.

And, having set two personal bests on her way to the title, Desiree - who has recently taken her GCSEs - was thrilled by her achievements.

"I am so happy to be a champion," she said. "I have the heart for it and the correct mindset - I wanted this so bad.

"I was not totally surprised by my performance as I knew I could do personal bests in the earlier rounds and, once in the final, the quality of the field was always going to bring fast times.

"Not only did I get this amazing experience, but I also left as a world champion.

"I may be less experienced than others as an athlete, but this showed me that once you are on the start line it's anybody's game."

Desiree joined Enfield And Haringey Athletic Club when she was ten, and has enjoyed considerable success on the domestic scene since then.

But her progress has accelerated in the past 12 months since she joined forces with renowned sprint coach Mike McFarlane at Lee Valley Athletics Centre where she is training partner of world junior 100m champion Jodie Williams. The scale of her progress was clear to see in Lille as she set a new personal best of 23.38seconds in winning her semi-final, and then in the final clocked an impressive 23.25secs to claim gold.

Henry, who was the youngest member of the British team in France, added: "Since I joined Mike I have progressed in a way I didn't think possible, and in such a short period of time. I do really want to thank him for all he did for me - I am so grateful."

The sprinter was accompanied in Lille by John Denford, who has coached her since she joined Enfield And Haringey and still works with her as part of McFarlane's training group. He revealed that he was not surprised by her success.

"I've been coaching girls for a long time, but she was completely different," he said. "She's got that magic touch. I said from the start that she would be a world star, and now she's done it.

"We were confident that she would get a medal, but I thought that the Jamaican would be hard to beat, so for her to come first in that quick a time was fantastic.

"She's a natural racer and she's never liked losing. She's had to race against people a lot older than her this year, and it's never fazed her."

Mr Denford added: "The next big target is the World Junior Championships in Barcelona next year, with the ultimate goal to secure a place in the 2016 Olympics."

Police take action to disperse youth gangs

By Shahnaz Ford

HARINGEY POLICE have introduced a dispersal order in a bid to combat anti-social behaviour by groups of youths.

The order covers parts of Bounds Green and Woodside wards. It dictates that if anyone who has been told to leave the area returns within 24 hours they can be arrested. The offence will be punishable by three months' imprisonment or a maximum fine of £2,500.

The police action follows community concern about cannabis use and threatening behaviour by large groups of youths. The youngsters involved are not believed to be pupils at the local schools and colleges, but are thought to have possible gang links. They use their numbers, often up to 40, to intimidate members of the public, teachers and pupils.

Martin Tissot, headteacher at St Thomas More Catholic School, said: "I am certain that this positive action will make the area in and around the school more peaceful, to the benefit of the local community."

Woodside Safer Neighbourhoods Team has been carrying out high-visibility patrols at school leaving time as well as giving talks about anti-social behaviour and avoiding the peer pressure of gangs.

The police violent crime desk has also worked with local officers to obtain anti-social behavioural contracts against prominent individual gang members who have been causing problems.

Chief Inspector Sonia Davis said: "People have the right to go about their lawful business without being subjected to fear or intimidation. We are committed to using every tactic we have in our power to protect that right and keep our communities safe."

The dispersal order is due to expire on January 20 2012, but a meeting will take place before to establish whether it needs to be extended.

If you have information about anti-social behaviour in Woodside or Bounds Green ward, call Woodside Safer Neighbourhood team on 020 8649 3519 or Bounds Green Safer Neighbourhood team on 020 8721 2676.

Firm fined for unauthorised conversion

A COMPANY has been fined £1,000 for trying to convert a building into flats without permission.

Dealer Estates Ltd pleaded guilty to the charges of breaching the Building Act 1984. The company claims that it was not properly informed by its builder about the authorisations required for the works. The case became known after Haringey Council's building control officers were tipped off about the unauthorised work. Consequently, the site in Green Lanes received several visits and warnings were issued to the builders concerning upholding the proper building regulations.

When officers visited the site, it became clear that five studio apartments had been built, and one tenant had already moved in, without any building control checks being made.

Dealer Estates was informed on June 29, at Haringey Magistrates' Court, that it should have contacted the local authority building control office. It was fined £1,000 and ordered to pay £670 in costs.

Man tagged after dumping oil in the street

A DRIVER who dumped oil and rubbish into a residential street has been electronically tagged and banned from leaving his home between 1pm and 11pm each day for two months.

Frederick Monk, of Tottenham, was found guilty of fly-tipping on June 28 at Wood Green Crown Court.

He received a 12-month community order along with the tagging requirement and was told that a breach of the curfew or the order could result in a prison term.

A fire inspector classed the spillage as a chemical incident and several residents had to be evacuated from their homes.

Witnesses and Haringey Council's enforcement team helped police track down the owner of the vehicle and also followed a trail of black liquid leading to an open-backed lorry parked nearby.

Nilgun Canver, cabinet member for the environment, said: "It is unbelievable that someone could think it OK to deposit this mess on to a residential street and get away with it.

"I'd like to thank those residents who helped us trace the culprit and pledge that we will do all we can to prevent rogues like this from defacing our streets, not to mention the inconvenience to all those people who had to leave their homes."

Down-to-earth residents win award for community garden

By Shahnaz Ford

GREEN-FINGERED residents have helped to turn a strip of land into an award-winning community garden.

The Gardens community garden will join a record number of parks and green spaces in Haringey which will be receiving a community award this year.

Since 2002 the green area alongside railway lines in Doncaster Gardens, which used to be plagued by anti-social behaviour, has been run and managed by unpaid volunteers through the residents' association.

Andy Newman, the vice-chairman of The Gardens Residents' Association, is overjoyed with this year's award as it is the sixth time in a row the garden has won it.

"We try to raise funds and install something different into the community garden every year so it's constantly evolving and growing," said Mr Newman.

The garden has been used as a community centre for birthday parties, outdoor films, Easter egg hunts and even, on some occasions, christenings. It can seat 80 people and also has a chess board and giant Jenga blocks.

Phil Barton, Green Flag Plus partnership chairman, congratulated this year's winners and said: "The Green Flag award scheme is essential in driving up the standards of our parks and green spaces. In these challenging financial times it is heartening that the number of community awards continue to grow. As the value of green space and the role it plays in our communities strengthens, we must ensure that these high standards remain."

All award-winning sites now have the chance to win a further People's Choice Award. This award is voted for by the public and to see your local park receive a national accolade visit www.greenflagaward.org.uk to register your vote.

Appeal for witnesses as shots fired at house party

POLICE were called to a Tottenham estate after shots were fired at a party.

Officers discovered ballistic damage to the hall wall after being called to the house in the Peabody Estate, Lordship Lane, on Saturday July 9.

Glass in the front door of a neighbouring property was also smashed, although no injuries were reported and no arrests have been made.

DC Matt Smith said: "We would like to hear from anyone who saw or heard anything that could assist our enquiries. I am keen to trace the occupants of a black BMW X6, which was parked in the area, who may have witnessed what happened. If you have any information on this incident, please contact us."

Haringey Safer Neighbourhoods Chief Inspector Sonia Davis, said: "We take incidents involving firearms very seriously and want to reassure the community that every available policing tactic is being used to prevent and deter violent crime and apprehend those that carry and use weapons."

Anyone with information is asked to call DC Matt Smith of Trident on 020 8733 4774 or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Missing boy found safe on a 149 bus

By Shahnaz Ford

POLICE have reunited a young boy with his family after he sparked a major manhunt when he went missing.

Four-year-old Joshua wandered off from his elder sister to look at buses in Tottenham, and when she noticed he had gone their frantic parents called police for help while neighbours scoured the streets. However, at 9.20pm that evening, police were called to reports of an unaccompanied boy who had somehow managed to get on to a 149 bus in High Road.

Haringey Safer Transport team officers arrived and took the child into their care, until they could hand him back to his relieved parents.

The transport team officers, Special Constable Henry Marshall and PC Nick Deery, were then able to safely return the boy home to Robert Burns House, where they were warmly greeted by many relieved residents who had been scouring the streets in search of the boy.

Esther Makovah, Joshua's mother, told how much her son loves buses and said: "When the officers turned up with him I was so relieved."

Back home: Special Constable Henry Marshall and PC Nick Deery reunited Joshua with mother Esther

"The response from the police and the community was wonderful, they were so helpful."

Special Constable Marshall and PC Deery returned to the family last Friday to check everything was still well and delivered some road safety information, including stickers and a "play safe" booklet.

The officers expressed their pleasure at seeing the Haringey community unite in efforts to return the child and keep people safe on the streets. Sergeant David Marsh said: "This event appears to have invoked a heartening display of community spirit within an entire Tottenham estate."

Project aims to reduce traffic and give pedestrians the right of way

Party: The community comes together

By Nicholas Brighton

A BUSY corner of Haringey was littered with hay bales earlier this month as part of a drive to encourage residents to walk more.

DIY Turnpike Lane is a neighbourhood-wide street design project to reshape the residential space to the south east of the Turnpike Lane Tube station to create a more social, safer and less traffic-dominated place. The project is part of an initiative between Haringey Council and the charity Sustrans to help naturally restrict car use and encourage more walking, cycling and social activities.

The corner of Waldeck Road and Stanmore Road became a social community space as the designs were mapped out with straw bales so they could be tested out.

A great time was had, especially by the children, with some street art, games and lots of cake to eat. Green London mayor candidate Jenny Jones visited on the day and was impressed with what the community were trying to achieve.

For the past year residents have been spearheading the new designs by highlighting problems such as high vehicle speeds, poor north-south pedestrian links, lack of community outdoor space and anti-social behaviour. The designs use creative new ways to tackle these issues which include features Wishbone and Knuckle.

Sustrans project officer, Ban Addy said: "The new shape gives the junction more priority to pedestrians and cyclists, and along with trees and greenery it will become a better public place where neighbours can meet and play."

UK CYPRIOTS and BRITISH PARLIAMENTARIANS RALLY IN SUPPORT OF CYPRUS

British Cypriots, supporters and politicians from across the UK's political spectrum, battled torrential rain in great numbers on Sunday 17th July in a show of solidarity against Turkey's intransigence over efforts to end Turkey's 37-year illegal military occupation of the northern part of Cyprus.

A demonstration outside the Turkish Embassy included the handing of a petition by Peter Droussiotis, President of the National Federation of Cypriots in the UK calling on Turkey to end its military occupation of the island's northern part.

This was followed by a march through the heart of London to Trafalgar Square for the main Rally. En route, a wreath spelling out CYPRUS, was laid at the Cenotaph in Whitehall.

A petition was also delivered to 10 Downing Street, in which the President of the Federation, Peter Droussiotis, called upon Prime Minister David Cameron "to use your personal and the Government's leverage and influence to exert the requisite pressure on Turkey to withdraw its occupying troops and to play an active and positive role in current efforts to reunite Cyprus for the benefit of all Cypriots".

At Trafalgar Square, Peter Droussiotis added "We call upon David Cameron to use his authority as Prime Minister to prevent the Cyprus problem from being relegated to the sidelines, from being constantly downgraded by the establishment of the British Foreign Office".

The main speaker from Cyprus was the Government Spokesman, Stephanos Stephanou, who reiterated the Cypriot Government's determination to achieve an agreed solution which "will terminate the occupation (of Cyprus by Turkey), reunify our land and restore the human rights and fundamental freedoms of the whole of the people (of Cyprus).

Among those demonstrating their solidarity at the Rally were MPs Theresa Villiers, Minister of Transport, Sir Alan Meale, Matthew Offord, Jim Sheridan; MEP Charles Tannock; Cypriot MEP Antigoni Papadopoulou; former MPs and Cyprus campaign veterans Tom Cox, Andrew Dismore, Ian Twinn; GLA Member Brian Coleman; Councillors Lisa Rutter Mayor of Barnet, Joanna Christophides, George Savva, Andreas Constantinides, Bambos Charalambous, Dinos Lemonides, Chris Joannides, Andrew Strongolou.

The Cyprus High Commissioner H.E. Alexandros Zenon, the Deputy George Christofides and the Consul-General George Georgiou, represented the Cyprus High Commission.

Also from Cyprus were the Mayors of occupied Morphou and Akanthou Charalambous Pittas and Savvas Savvides, President of the Pancyprian Union of Refugees (PEP) Christakis Paschalis and Secretary of PEP Andreas Meraklis.

Wild snapper flies off with top prize

WHAT looks like two dancing cranes is the overall winner of this year's Lauderdale House Photographic Competition.

Shian Lee's Dance Of The Tancho was chosen by a team of judges as the winner of the Open Category and the overall winner of the competition, beating off tough competition from the winner of the category on the theme of Contrast by Abdul Hakim Onitolo.

Once again hundreds of entries were submitted leading to a fascinating range of subjects for the judging panel to wade through.

"There was a good variety of images which made it very hard to choose the winners," said this newspaper's chief photographer and judge, Anne-Marie Sanderson. "Shian Lee entered several pictures and was very adept at capturing animals in their natural habitats. This one in particular was a beautiful picture which looked in some respects like a Japanese print and helped it stand out from the others."

Abdul's picture was on the theme of Contrast and featured a dark alleyway with street lights highlighting particular areas.

"This kind of thing is quite commonplace but difficult to do well," said Anne-Marie. "So we were full of praise for Abdul's entry."

Both pictures can be seen as part of the exhibition which opened last night and can be seen until next Sunday. Admission is free. The entrance hall and the long gallery, where the pictures are being displayed, are open from Tuesdays to Fridays, 11am to 4pm; Sundays from midday to 5pm. Call the box office on 020 8348 8716.

Out and about

● YET more Edinburgh Festival comedy previews take over Downstairs at the King's Head this Friday. Carey Mark and Seann Walsh are the funny guys performing. Tickets cost £7 (£5 concs). Doors at the venue in Crouch End Hill, Crouch End open at 8pm. Call 020 8340 1028.

● COOL, cutting-edge and community based - Ghetto Youth Transformation Theatre are back at the Millfield Arts Centre tomorrow and Friday. The youth group performs its latest play, Cybermissive, which aims to explore the intrusion of privacy in the era of Facebook. Tickets cost £10 (£7.50 concessions) and performances start at 7.30pm. Call 020 8807 6680.

● UPSTAIRS at the Gatehouse plays its part in The Camden Fringe next month. On Monday it hosts The Jive Aces Sunshine Tour - hot swing from the group prior to performances of The Strange Case Of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde from Tread The Boards Theatre Company; The Beggar's Opera by YAP Theatre Company; a version of Macbeth by Hiraeth Artistic Productions; and Rivals by The King's Players. ## food

The Gannets

Laos Cafe, 265-267 Archway Road, Highgate 07955 383 233
www.laoscafe.biz

WE'VE been into this quirky corner of Highgate on the busy Archway Road many times before... and it now looks like we will be going many times in future.

Comprising a vibrant, arty enclave it boasts Jacksons Lane arts centre, the musical Boogaloo pub and now the triangle is completed with the divine Laos Cafe which boasts some excellent Asian food and some super, cake.

It has also recently expanded and now features loads of vintage-looking comfy chairs and sofas to crash out on and paintings to look at while pretending you're in someone's elegant front room - probably around the French Indochina period.

Chances are you'll be met by Rob...usually in a hat... who will give you a big smile in-between chopping up some herbs for one of this lip-smacking curries (the open kitchen allows you to spy on Rob and make sure he's not cheating!)

Unfortunately, the Taiwanese dumplings weren't on his small - but flavoursome - menu today so we decided to sacrifice starters and double up on cake for dessert!

Highgate's oasis of Asian cuisine

Instead we contented ourselves with Rob's excellent smoothies at £3.50 a pop - Black Orchard (orange, apple and mixed berries) and Apple Cooler (apple, cucumber, ginger and mint) made us feel all healthy ahead of the sugar rush ahead.

For the mains it was chicken green curry with rice and a Japanese vegetable Thai curry (both £6.95) off the specials board. Both carried the rich, pungent taste of the carefully prepared, curry and were a joy after working our way through many a bland, mass-produced curry from restaurant chains.

To tell you the truth we really didn't need a large wedge of cake afterwards but, then again, when do you ever really need a large wedge of cake?! So, skipping the Mon-mouth coffees and variety of organic teas this time round, we shared a doorstep slice of carrot and walnut and a slab of seriously cocoa infused chocolate cake, and were very grateful we did not go for the proper hot chocolate boasting chocolate chunks, cream and marshmallows as my companion had insisted upon when we entered this idiosyncratic feast from the east.

STOP PRESS: To complete the arty triangle, cinema is shortly promised at the cafe in a range of arty films on weekdays and children's films at weekends. Pop in to find out more details...

Good attitude: Luka Modric

MODRIC LETS HIS BOOTS DO THE TALKING

By Lee Husson

TOTTENHAM boss Harry Redknapp has praised Luka Modric's "first-class" attitude despite ongoing speculation about where the Croatian will be playing next season.

Chelsea have been trying to sign the Spurs midfielder this summer, and Modric has made it clear that he wants to leave White Hart Lane and sign for their London rivals.

However, Redknapp has been left impressed by Modric's professional approach on the club's pre-season tour of South Africa as he skippered the side to a 3-0 victory over Orlando Pirates on Saturday.

Rafael van der Vaart scored twice, with Jermain Defoe adding the other.

"Luka's attitude has been first class. He has got on with it," said Redknapp. "There would be players when they have wanted to move that really wouldn't have wanted to be playing and not giving 100 per cent.

"But he only knows one way to play. He is a fantastic boy and a great professional. His attitude couldn't be better.

"We can't just be selling our best players off. Certain players just have that extra bit of class, like Rafa and Luka. We have some special players and we have to keep special players.

"They make the difference, so we have to keep Luka."

Meanwhile, young defender Kyle Naughton will join Premier League new boys Norwich City after the two clubs agreed to a season-long loan deal.

Naughton impressed on loan at Leicester City in the Championship last season, making 36 appearances and chipping in with five goals.

Skolars are taught the harshest of lessons

LONDON SKOLARS' good run of form came to a shuddering halt on Saturday as they were taught a lesson by Workington Town in a heavy 44-14 defeat.

In a game that the hosts dominated from start to finish, Workington scored an early try through Elliot Miller, before they raced into a 25-0 lead at the break thanks to more tries from Mike Whitehead, Jarred Stack and Aaron Low.

The one-way traffic continued in the second half, with Neil Frazer outpacing the Skolars defence to touch down just five minutes in. John Patrick then crashed over the line to extend the lead to 35-0.

The visitors finally showed signs of life in a ten minute spell where they ran in two tries, with Austen Aggrey and Dylan Skee both going over.

However, Workington regained control of the match, hitting back through Scott Kaighan's try.

The Skolars had the final word though when James Anthony touched down in the closing stages, but it was too little too late for Joe Mbu's men.

The Skolars face Swinton Lions at the New River Stadium on Saturday (4pm).
